FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. We're a couple, do we need to share a room?

- No, you do not need to share a room. Couples can opt for double sharing, which provides a private room exclusively for the two of you without sharing with other travelers.

2. I'm traveling Solo, how will I be accommodated?

- For solo travelers, accommodation will be arranged on a double sharing basis with another same-gender solo traveler. This allows you to share a room with another solo traveler of the same gender.

3. What currency is used in Bhutan?

- Bhutan's national currency is the Ngultrum (BTN). However, Indian currency is widely accepted everywhere. so there's no need to exchange INR for Bhutanese Ngultrum.

4. Are ATMs / Credit Card available in Bhutan?

- While there are ATMs in Bhutan, we recommend not relying solely on them. It's advisable to carry sufficient cash to ensure smooth transactions during your trip. Credit card is still not common in Bhutan. Very few stores/hotels accept VISA card with 5% charges.

5. Is Bhutan safe for solo traveling?

- Yes, Bhutan is considered one of the safest destinations for solo travelers. It offers a welcoming and secure environment. However, traveling solo in Bhutan may involve higher costs due to limited sharing options for transportation and accommodation. Joining a group can help reduce these costs.

6. Are there any restrictions on dress?

- There are no rules about what visitors should wear. However if you are planning to visit places of religious significance, respectful smart-casual clothing that covers your body from shoulders to knees is appropriate and appreciated.

7. How much cash can I bring into Bhutan?

- You may bring cash equivalent to US$10,000 into the country.

8. What currency is used in Bhutan?

Bhutan's currency is called ngultrum. It's 1:1 with Indian rupees.

9. What is the weather like in Bhutan and when is the best time to visit?

Bhutan is a year-round destination. There are four seasons: summer (June to August), autumn (September to November), winter (December to February) and spring (March to May). But because of the range of altitudes in the country, and the influence of the north Indian monsoons, the climate is incredibly varied.

Bhutan's generally dry spring starts in early March and lasts until mid-April. It is a botanist's delight, with nature in full bloom. Summer weather commences in mid-April with occasional showers and continues to late June.

REVIEW

Join us on an eco-conscious adventure to Bhutan with Tripkarado! We're excited to announce our initiative to promote sustainability and reduce plastic waste during our trips. As part of our commitment to the environment, we encourage all our guests to bring their own reusable water bottles for the Bhutan excursion.

WILDLIFE PROTECTION:

- Plastic waste harms wildlife. By carrying reusable bottles, you prevent accidental litter that can harm Bhutan's diverse flora and fauna, preserving their natural habitats

HEALTHIER LIFESTYLE:

- Opt for your own bottle filled with fresh, clean water available throughout the journey. Stay hydrated sustainably and enjoys the health benefits of drinking clean, natural water.

EDUCATIONAL IMPACT:

- Your actions inspire others. By carrying a reusable bottle, you set an example for fellow travelers and locals, promoting a shift toward sustainable practices.

REGENERATIVE TOURISM:

- Embrace a regenerative approach to tourism by minimizing waste. Your small actions contribute to the restoration and preservation of Bhutan's natural beauty.

REDUCING CARBON FOOTPRINT:

- Plastic production and disposal contribute to carbon emissions. By avoiding single-use plastic bottles, you're helping mitigate climate change impacts on Bhutan's delicate ecosystems.

AT TRIPKARADO, WE BELIEVE IN RESPONSIBLE TOURISM, AND THAT STARTS WITH SMALL YET IMPACTFUL ACTIONS. BY CARRYING YOUR OWN REUSABLE WATER BOTTLES, YOU NOT ONLY CONTRIBUTE TO MINIMIZING PLASTIC POLLUTION BUT ALSO BECOME A PART OF THE POSITIVE CHANGE FOR A GREENER, CLEANER PLANET.
